

Kids & Teens Can Eat free all summer!

Spread the Word about Summer Meals

Don't let kids go hungry this summer.
Just because school is out doesn't mean they can't get the same free or reduced-cost meals they rely on during the school year.
In fact, any kid or teen 18 and under can eat for free at designated summer meal sites across the country.
But too many families don't know, or don't take advantage of the program.

Find summer meals in your community
And use these tools to let people know they're available.
